

1. A small block of ice slides from rest from the top of an inverted frictionless bowl of radius R (above right). How far below the top x does the ice lose contact with the bowl?

